Segment Guide

What the segments mean and how to act on them

Recency

Days since the customer's last order. Fewer days is better. Scored 1 to 5 by quintiles.

Frequency

Number of distinct orders. Scored 1 to 5 using fixed thresholds, because 63% of customers have only one order.

Monetary

Total amount spent over the whole period. Scored 1 to 5 by quintiles.

How segments are assigned

(R, F and M are scores from 1 to 5. Rules apply in this order.)

- Champions: R ≥ 4 and F ≥ 3
- Loyal Customers: R ≥ 3 and F ≥ 2
- New Customers: R ≥ 4 and F = 1
- Potential Loyalists: R = 3 and F = 1
- At Risk: R ≤ 2 and (F ≥ 2 or M ≥ 4)
- Hibernating / Lost: everyone else

Segments and Recommended Actions

Segment	Total Customers	Customer Share %	Description	Marketing Action
Champions	893	4.8%	Bought recently, order often, high value	VIP offers, early access to new products, loyalty rewards
Loyal Customers	3863	20.9%	Repeat buyers who are still active	Loyalty program, cross-sell and upsell, ask for reviews
Potential Loyalists	2188	11.8%	Bought once and are becoming less recent, with room to grow	Follow-up offer on a second purchase, product recommendations
New Customers	4148	22.4%	Recently made their first purchase	Welcome campaign, onboarding emails, first-repeat-purchase incentive
At Risk	3363	18.2%	Previously valuable but haven't bought for a long time	Personalized win-back campaign, targeted discount, "we miss you" email
Hibernating / Lost	4029	21.8%	Inactive one-time, low-spend buyers	Low-cost reactivation email, seasonal promotions, otherwise deprioritize
Total	18484	100.0%

Segments and R/F/M values are calculated once per customer from their full purchase history (Dec 2010 to Jan 2014). They do not change with the Product slicer. Recency is measured from 29 Jan 2014, the day after the last order in the data.
